Call for papers

1st National TLE TeachLivE™ Conference

University of Central Florida

Orlando, Florida

May 23-24, 2013

“Transferring Ideas to Improve Teacher Practices through Innovative Techniques”

Submissions are due by March 15, 2013

The TLE TeachLivE™ Staff invites you to submit a proposal for review for possible inclusion in the conference program for the first national TLE TeachLivE™ conference. You can also find a complete copy of this call for papers at TLE Teachlive’s website (Electronic submissions are required).

General Instructions for submitting proposals

- Click on the call for papers or proposal submission forms link listed in this document.
- Complete the form in its entirety; required information includes the following:
  - Name, school affiliation, and e-mail address
  - Additional presenters
  - Session title (No more than 12 words)
  - Presentation format and applicable strand
  - Session Description (No more than 50 words)
  - Session Abstract (No more than 300 words)
- Once you submit your form you should receive an e-mail confirming your submission.
- Call for papers submission forms must be completed in its entirety by March 15, 2013.
- If there are any changes after completion and submission of your proposal, please notify teachlive@ucf.edu.
- All presenters must be registered for the conference by April 15, 2013.
Presentation Threads

We are accepting proposals that fall in to the following strands:

Technology/Fidelity of the system

Teacher practices

Literacy

Mathematics

Proposed Innovations to TLE TeachLivE™

Please ensure that you indicate one of the above categories for your proposal submission.

Presentation formats

Gallery Presentations: A gallery presentation will consist of a promethium Board or white board presentation. Conference attendees will be able to visit your presentation area during your 20 minute presentation. Each gallery presentation will last for 20 minutes.

Poster Presentations: A poster presentation will consist of a non-electronic form of your presentation to be discussed with interested colleagues on a one-on-one basis. Your poster will be on display throughout the conference; however, you will commit to discussing your past, present, or future research for 1 hour.

Presentation Dissemination

After your proposal has been reviewed and accepted, we request that your presentations be e-mailed to teachlive@ucf.edu for dissemination on the TLE TeachLivE™ website. Dissemination of conference materials will allow for current and future TLE TeachLivErs to have access to quality research that has or will take place.

Contact Information

If you have any questions pertaining to your proposal submission, please contact Stacey Hardin or Aleshia Hayes at teachlive@ucf.edu or 407-603-6055.